The original Broadway stars of SIX will return to Broadway's Brooks Atkinson Theatre on 17 September ahead of a new opening night on 3 October. The new musical had its original opening night cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic. SIX will once again star Adrianna Hicks as Catherine of Aragon, Andrea Macasaet as Anne Boleyn, Abby Mueller as Jane Seymour, Brittney Mack as Anna of Cleves, Samantha Pauly as Katherine Howard and Anna Uzele as Catherine Parr. The cast will also include Nicole Kyoung-Mi Lambert, Courtney Mack, Mallory Maedke and new cast member Keirsten Hodgens. Written by Toby Marlow and Lucy Moss, and directed by Moss and Jamie Armitage, the musical centres on the six ex-wives of King Henry VIII, who headline an electrifying pop-concert spectacle – flipping the narrative of the one-sided story from the history books.

Welcome to the rock! Members of the COME FROM AWAY company will perform a free concert staging of the Broadway musical at the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D.C. to commemorate the 20th anniversary of 9/11 on 10 September. The event, produced by Ford's Theatre Society, features modified staging with minimal props and costumes. The 100-minute performance is offered rain or shine. As previously announced, the Broadway production of COME FROM AWAY will resume performances at the Schoenfeld Theatre on 21 September 21. Featuring a book and score by Irene Sankoff and David Hein and directed by Tony winner Christopher Ashley, COME FROM AWAY is based on the true story of when the isolated community of Gander, Newfoundland, played host to the world. What started as an average day in a small town turned in to an international sleepover when 38 planes, carrying thousands of people from across the globe, were diverted to Gander's airstrip on 11 September 2001. Undaunted by culture clashes and language barriers, the people of Gander cheered the stranded travellers with music, an open bar and the recognition that we're all part of a global family.
